

The ICAI University Sikkim Hosted 3rd Intra Moot Court Competition

June 4, 2025

The Moot Court Society of the ICAI University, Sikkim, successfully organized a one-day 3rd Intra Moot Court Competition on 4th June 2025. The event culminated in a highly engaging final round, presided over by Smt. Sangita Pradhan, Deputy Solicitor General of India for the High Court of Sikkim, who served as the esteemed judge for the competition.

The program commenced with a formal welcome extended to the distinguished guest, followed by an inaugural address delivered by Mr. Kinchok Norbu Bhutia, President of the Moot Court Society, IUS.

The final round featured an intense legal contest between Team 1—Mr. Sogyal Topden Norbu, Mr. Pramath Chettri, Ms. Sanskriti Giri, and Mr. Yograj Pradhan and Team 2—Mr. Ayush Bose, Ms. Astha Sapkota, Ms. Palsang Rumba, and Mr. Abhishek Dwivedi. Both teams presented compelling arguments and demonstrated impressive legal acumen. After a rigorous round of arguments and rebuttals, Team 2 was declared the winner, and Mr. Ayush Bose (B.A. LL.B., VIII Semester) was awarded Best Speaker for his outstanding advocacy skills.

The event concluded with closing remarks from Smt. Pradhan, who shared insightful guidance with the students. She emphasized the importance of continuous skill development, discipline, and perseverance in the legal profession. Urging students to overcome complacency, she advised them to dedicate at least five to ten years post-graduation to building a strong foundation as competent advocates. The program concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. Arpan Sharma, a student of B.A. LL.B., X Semester.

The competition not only showcased the oratory and analytical skills of the participants but also served as a platform to inspire budding legal professionals to strive for excellence in their careers.
