

Dr. Rodney H Clarcken from USA visited at The ICFAI University ICFAI University Sikkim – November 11, 2019

Dr. Rodney H Clarcken a Professor and director of teacher education, author, and education content creator from USA visited ICFAI University Sikkim on 11th November 2019. He addressed the faculties and students with his inspirational speech which focused on the purpose of one's life and how to have a meaningful life. He emphasized on the development of soul, serving humanity and on the stages of evolution of an individual's soul. He highlighted on the six practices that we should follow everyday such as pray from the heart to be a better person, read from the scriptures of holy book, inspire people around to find greater truth, serve the highest good, meditate and strive to be better person. The session ended in a fruitful way followed by a question and answer round where he explained that we can save humanity by truth, love and justice.

