

Client Counselling Session at ICFAI University Sikkim

Gangtok, 8 December 2025

The Client Counselling Club of the Faculty of Law, ICFAI University Sikkim, successfully organized a Client Counselling Session featuring Senior Advocate S. S. Hamal as the resource person. The session focused on the growing importance of client counselling in the legal profession, emphasizing its role as both a key professional skill and an ethical duty for effective legal representation.

The event commenced with an introduction highlighting the objectives and vision of the Client Counselling Club in promoting practical learning and professional skill development among law students.

Senior Advocate Hamal addressed the fundamental principles of client counselling, underscoring active listening, empathy, confidentiality, and effective communication as crucial components of quality legal service. His insights offered students valuable perspectives on client-lawyer dynamics and real-life legal practice.

The programme was organized under the guidance of Dr. Prasanata Chhetri and Mr. Rinchen Tamang, Heads of the Client Counselling Club. The session was attended by the Pro-Vice Chancellor, Head of the Department, faculty members, and students, all of whom actively participated in the discussions.

The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Chunry Tamin, BA.LLB VII Semester, expressing gratitude to the resource person, dignitaries, faculty, and participants for their support in making the session a success.
