

“National Unity Day & Sardar@150 Unity March (Padyatra)” Celebration at The ICFAI University, Sikkim

Date: 31st October 2025

The NSS Cell of The ICFAI University, Sikkim organized a Quiz Competition and Pledge-Taking Ceremony on the occasion of National Unity Day and Sardar@150 Unity March (Padyatra). The event aimed to spread awareness about the values of unity, integrity, and the contributions of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel towards nation-building.

The session began with a welcome address by Mr. Debajit Boruah, Assistant Professor cum Program Officer, NSS Cell of the university. He highlighted the significance of National Unity Day and the vision of Sardar Patel in uniting the nation.

An informative quiz competition was conducted to encourage students to learn more about India's freedom movement and the contributions of Sardar Patel. Three winners were selected for the first, second, and third positions, and were felicitated with Khadas and ICFAI diaries as a token of appreciation.

The program concluded successfully with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the university authorities, participants, and volunteers for making the event meaningful and inspiring.

The event helped students understand the importance of unity, patriotism, and collective responsibility in strengthening the nation.
