

Cultural extravaganza marks conclusion of Ablaze 2026 of ICFAI University

SE Report

GANGTOK, April 11: The grand finale of Ablaze 2026, presented by the ICFAI University, Sikkim, was successfully held at the auditorium of Nar Bahadur Bhandari Government College, Tadong here.

Lokayukta of Sikkim chairperson Justice A.P. Subba graced the event as the chief guest while AYSUH advisor Arjun Kumar Ghatani was present as the guest of honor.

The programme commenced with a welcome address delivered by ICFAI University Sikkim Vice Chancellor Dr. Jagannath Patnaik, informs a press release today.

Justice A.P. Subba in his special address emphasized the importance of youth engagement in cultural preservation and academic excellence.

The programme featured competitions and performances, including Group Dance (Eastern and Western categories), Solo Song competitions, Solo Dance performances, and a vibrant "Threads of Tradition" cultural fashion showcase.

The event also included felicitation and prize distribution for Ablaze 2025 winners, along with recognition of jury members for their contributions.

The university community extended special appreciation to the vice chancellor for his visionary leadership and continuous encouragement, which played a pivotal role in the successful organization of Ablaze 2026.

Cultural performances added grandeur to the event, including a traditional Maruni dance celebrating Sikkim's rich heritage, a Bhutanese dance showcasing cross-cultural harmony, and an energetic Arunachali group dance highlighting rhythm and tradition.

Ablaze 2026 stands as a testament to the spirit of unity, creativity, and cultural diversity, leaving participants and attendees inspired and enriched, the release mentions.