

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MoU)

Between

Tribhuvan University, Nepal

And

The Institute of Chartered Financial Analysts of India University, Sikkim, India

Tribhuvan University (TU), a government funded public university established in 1959 in Nepal, and the Institute of Chartered Financial Analysts of India University (ICFAI), Sikkim, India established under the section 4 (2) of the Institute of Chartered Financial Analysis of India University, Sikkim Act, 2004, have agreed to establish academic relations on the following conditions with the common intent to pursue and promote quality education through teaching excellence and make provisions for dissemination of knowledge and advancement through research excellence.

1. Either institution may establish Madan Bhandari Chair for Research and Development on the consent of the government of corresponding country in matters that need government approval.
2. Both institutions may set up any other study/research centre defining its purpose and functions on mutual agreement.
3. Both institutions shall implement the following academic endeavours:
 - (i) faculty/staff exchange and capacity building
 - (ii) exchange of students of undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral level
 - (iii) awarding joint/dual degrees to the exchanged students
 - (iv) conducting international conferences, seminars, workshops, symposiums etc.
 - (v) scientific, social, linguistic, and cultural exchange.

