

NOTIFICATION

It is vital for universities and colleges offering legal education to establish the following clubs. Recognizing the significance of this initiative, the University is pleased to announce the creation of these clubs and encourages mentors to actively support and coordinate their activities.

Sl. No.	Club	Objective	Mentors
1	Client Counselling Club	Client counselling involves the practice of engaging with a client when they seek legal guidance. Basic aim of the counselling is that students learn to guide clients in such a way to bring about a voluntary change in the client. Client counselling clubs help law students develop their skills in interviewing, planning, and analysing client matters	1. Mr. Rinchen Tamang 2. Dr. Prasanata Chettri
2	Arbitration Club	Students will know how to get a fair resolution of disputes within a reasonable time frame without wasting time or money. They will also learn how to provide access to justice to the parties involved in such disputes so as to ensure that their rights are protected.	1. Ms. Samarmit Lepcha 2. Dr. Numa Limboo
3	Legal Literacy Club	A legal literacy club is a group that educates students about their rights and duties, and how to access justice for vulnerable populations. The goal of these clubs is to help students become law-abiding citizens and advocates for human rights.	1. Ms. Soni Subedi 2. Ms. Puja Khatiwoda

Rohit Rathi
20/9/24
Dr. Rohit Rathi
Registrar

