

National Teachers Day at ICFAI University Sikkim - September 05, 2018

The National Teachers Day was celebrated at ICFAI University Sikkim, by awarding distinguished Teachers award in collaboration with International Association of Educators for World Peace USA an UN affiliate. The occasion was graced by Hon'ble Governor of Sikkim Sri Ganga Prasad, Addl. Chief Secretary Dr. K Jayakumar, Hon'ble MLA Shri D. R. Thapa and Vice Chancellors of other Universities. It was a unique event this time as the University decided to felicitate the great teachers who are silently and relentlessly working very hard to make this a better nation. The day started by seed plantation in memory of Lt. Shri. N.J. Yasaswy, Founder of The ICFAI Group. It was followed by lighting of lamp and Guru Bandana dance by the students. The Vice Chancellor, Dr. Jagannath Patnaik addressed the audience and stated his intention regarding ICFAI University Sikkim Distinguished Teachers Award. The Chief Guest, Guest of Honour and the Special Guest gave away the ICFAI University Sikkim Distinguished Teacher Award 2018 to several teachers from schools around Gangtok for their noble contribution. The Special Guest addressed the audience, which was followed by speech from Hon'ble Governor which was very inspiring and motivating for the all students and teachers. Finally, Shri Nyima Tenzing, Associate Dean cum Registrar(I/C) gave vote of thanks speech which was followed by National Anthem. The High Tea which was organized by our very own BHM and Culinary Art team was out of the world.

