

FRESHER'S WELCOME AND ORIENTATION PROGRAM

The ICFAI University Sikkim held its annual Fresher's Welcome and Orientation Program at Manan Kendra. The event was graced by the presence of Dr. Jaganath Patnail, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of ICFAI University, along with other distinguished guests from academic and law enforcement sectors.

The program began with a warm welcome address by Ms. Skiksha Goyal, the Student Council President, who conveyed her delight in welcoming the new students to their new home for the next four to five years. She also highlighted the prestigious position of the ICFAI University Sikkim as a premier and oldest university in the State, recognized by UGC.

The event witnessed the presence of Mr. Akshay Sachdeva, Special DG Law and Order of Sikkim Police, and SP East of Sikkim police, who attended as a Chief Guest and guest of Honor, respectively. They shared motivational insights with the students and emphasized the responsibility they hold as representative of not only themselves but also the entire ICFAI University family.
