

THE ICFAI UNIVERSITY, SIKKIM, PEACE CLUB IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE NSS CELL AND UNIVERSAL PEACE FEDERATION ORGANIZES A EVENT ON INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE -2024

Date: 20th September 2024

The ICFAI University, Sikkim, celebrated International Day of Peace with a grand event organized by the University Peace Club, in collaboration with the NSS Cell of the university and the Universal Peace Federation (UPF). The event, held on campus, highlighted the importance of peace to all nations, emphasizing the global impact of peace efforts and the dire consequences of neglecting to foster harmony.

The distinguished Guests of Honor for the event were Mr. G.M. Gurung, former Minister and Chairman of UPF-Sikkim, Mr. Loden Sherpa Lepcha, and Lopen Lama Saheb, Chultrim Gurme, who graced the occasion with their wisdom and presence. The guest were felicitated by Dr. Rohit Rathi, Registrar, and Ms. Sandhya R. Pant, Deputy Registrar of The ICFAI University, Sikkim.

The event began with a series of impactful speeches by students, followed by poetry recitations, a group song, and an introduction to the Peace Club. Lopen Lama Saheb, Chultrim Gurme, delivered an enlightening address focusing on ego and how overcoming it can lead to personal and global peace. Mr. G.M. Gurung shared his deep reflections on the essence of peace, encouraging students to understand that true peace often starts within families, particularly through the nurturing role of parents. He further inspired the audience by discussing the value of parenthood in promoting a peaceful and compassionate world.

Ms. Sandhya R. Pant, Deputy Registrar, also addressed the gathering, sharing a short yet meaningful message, motivating the students to be active participants in the peace-building process. A sketch competition was organized as part of the celebration, with the winners being felicitated with traditional Khadas and gifts, marking their contribution to the International Day of Peace.

This Event provides a platform for raising awareness of the critical role peace plays in fostering prosperity, equity, and unity. The ICFAI University, Sikkim, through this event, reiterates its commitment to promoting peace and preparing its students to be global citizens who champion the cause of peace in their personal and professional lives and raising awareness of the critical role peace plays in fostering prosperity, equity, and unity.
